

Pep Rally Policy

New Home ISD will continue to have pep rally's during our football season, but with some changes to the students that will be in attendance.

High School Pep Rally's will consist of high school students and one Elementary class as scheduled by Mrs. Baum.

Junior High Pep Rally's will consist of junior high students and two Elementary classes as selected by Mrs. Baum.

Parents of players and cheerleaders will be allowed to attend the pep rally's in which their student is involved.

Parents will be required to wear a face mask until seated and will also be asked to take their temperature. Entry will be on the south side at our new gym.

Students that are seated in the bleachers will be asked to utilize a face mask through-out the pep rally.

If you do not want your student(s) to participate in the pep rally please notify your campus principal via email.
